others in the church, in society, in the busy marts of trade, when he says:

"I have noot seen, I may not see
My hopes for man take form in fact,
But God will give the victory,
In due time; in that faith I act.

And he who sees the future sure,
The baffling present may endure,
And bless meanwhile, the unseen
Hand that leads
The heart's desires beyond the halting step of deeds."

We have a very timely lesson for the Sunday School hour at 9:30. It is about Peter standing up for truth and honesty—Acts 5:1-11. Drop into the men's Bible class. It will prove an hour well spent.

Morning worship and sermon at 10:30. Dr. Pheley will speak on the subject, "Trust as a Refuge." There is a golden nugget of helpfulness here for every life.

Junior C. E. meeting at 2:30. The topic is, "How to Read the Bible," Acts 17:11. The pastor will lead and will have a special text card for each junior.

Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:30. "The World's Need of Christ," Eph. 2:1-13. Miss Virginia Pope will lead. This will be an hour of great value. All young people invited.

Prayer and praise service Thursday evening at 7:30. The subject for consideration is, "Great Relations—Father."

The Choral Union will meet for rehearsal Saturday evening at 7:30. The members enjoyed a social evening at the pastor's home last Wednesday.

The teacher training class of the Perrysburg township S. S. Association completed the ten weeks' course of study on "The Principles of Teaching" last Monday evening. The study has been interesting and most instructive under the efficient direction of Rev. W. H. Spybey.

Really Small Flats.

Verona was much impressed with her first night in a berth on a sleeper, and in relating some of the wonders of her trip, remarked: "Why, Aunt Emma, the flats were so small we couldn't all live together. Mamma and I slept in the first flat and daddy in the second flat."
